NOTICE.

LOWNDES' BIBLIOGRAPHER'S MANUAL having become an extremely scarce and expensive work, selling at auction for upwards of seven pounds, with a prospect of its increasing in price, the present Publisher thought he should render an acceptable service to the Book-collector, and especially to Book-sellers, by reissuing it in a cheap and popular form. With this view he purchased the copyright from the late Mr. Pickering's executors, intending to confine himself to a verbatim reprint, with the exception only of such corrections and additions as had already been made in his own business copy, or might chance to be communicated by friends. But, on examining the first few proofs, he unexpectedly found so much to correct and complete, that he felt it necessary to change his plans, and bestow considerably more care upon the editing than he originally contemplated. Accordingly every sheet has been read over at least four times, once by himself, the others by his assistants; notwithstanding which, he has reason to fear that many errors and omissions will remain.

It has not been attempted to make the book perfect, but merely to amend and improve it, by supplying manifest deficiencies, and completing the accounts of such works as were in progress when Lowndes wrote. Some of the additions are marked by brackets; but this plan having, in many instances, been found inconvenient, by far the greater number are without any indication; such, for instance, as the articles 'Bible,' 'Blake (Wm.),' and 'Breviaries,' which have been entirely rewritten.

New editions of old or standard works are frequently, though not invariably, mentioned; but entirely new works, first published since the time of Lowndes, are intentionally excluded, being reserved for a Supplementary Volume of Modern Literature; on this principle Macaulay's History of England will be omitted, while new editions of Hume, and the elder historians, will be duly noticed.

Who have hitherto assisted, or may hereafter assist, either continuously or occasionally, must remain to be stated at the conclusion of the work; in the mean time, the communication of any corrections or additions will be thankfully received by

NOTICE TO PART THE SECOND.

It was not the Publisher's intention to write any more preambles until the conclusion of the work, when all he might have to say would be included in a general preface; but numerous communications, public and private, seem to require earlier recognition.

Some well-meant advisers have suggested the omission of what they deemed unimportant articles of past literature, and the substitution of works of modern date. But they overlook the declared principle of the present edition, which is, that it shall be a faithful, though revised and enlarged, reprint of its predecessor, without omissions of any kind, and that Modern Literature (whether omitted by Lowndes or subsequent to the period when he wrote) is to form a Supplementary Volume. Besides which, were it even advisable to omit anything on account of worthlessness, it would be extremely difficult to determine what belongs to this category.

Every bibliographer knows the importance which an apparently worthless volume sometimes acquires by adventitious circumstance. It may establish a date or a fact, and settle a vast amount of controversy. A supposed piece of waste paper might fix an important epoch in the history of engraving or printing, and an old book cover, (such as was once heedlessly thrown away) determine, with an approximation to certainty, the period of the first block-books. These reasons must serve as an answer to those who advocate omissions.

Some have regretted the paucity of literary and critical notices; but these are far more numerous in Lowndes than in any other book of the kind, and do not, besides, strictly belong to bibliography, but rather to literary history and biography. No doubt an alphabetical arrangement of pithy extracts from reviews would be a very agreeable as well as convenient repertory, but such a work, to answer its purpose, would require to be four times as large as it is proposed to make the present.

Other critics or correspondents, who are pleased to admit my capabilities, wonder that I should tie myself to Lowndes.

and not rather make a new and perfect book in my own name. To these I reply, that the labour required to make anything like a perfect Manual of Bibliography, is, both physically and mentally, far beyond what would be conceived by those who have not engaged in such duties, while the requital of even a successful achievement would be below what might be derived from the most ordinary pursuit. Dr. Watt, author of the 'Bibliotheca Britannica,' exhausted in health and pocket by his herculean labour, died on the eve of its completion, nor did it yield any benefit either to his successors or publishers; and Lowndes, after years of unwearied exertion, died in distress. Many more such examples might be adduced.

There would be no difficulty in making a perfect book,—as far as anything human can be perfect—were the appliances sufficient; but nothing less than a liberal and independent appointment from the Crown can ever provide a stimulus adequate to the desired object. It would be possible to register and describe, under one alphabet, every book known to literature, and to indicate the particular libraries where they are to be found; and, if undivided attention could be bestowed on such an object, it might be accomplished in a very few years. Manuscripts might be treated in the same manner, and classed Indexes to the whole follow. But such a happy consummation is rather to be sighed for than expected: meanwhile the literary public will, it is hoped, take in good part the installment now made in a right direction.

The present part is enlarged and corrected on every page, as will be evident on comparison. Among the articles which have undergone more especial attention may be enumerated: British Museum, Britton, Brougham, Brydges (Sir Egerton), Bunyan, Butler (Sam.), Byron, Caxton, Chaucer, Coleridge, Costume, Cook (Capt.), Cooke (W. B.), Cowper, Crabbe, Crichton, &c. All continuations and new editions of books mentioned by Lowndes, have, as far as possible, been indicated, and frequent additions made of the auction prices of rare and early printed volumes. Indeed, all has been done that could well be done, without reconstructing the whole work, and the Publisher only hopes that he may be able to go through his task with as little cause of complaint as he has yet encountered. The publication was undertaken, more as a boon to his confrères and to literary men, than as an object of mercantile profit, and he trusts it will be received as such.

LOWNDES' PREFACE,

WRITTEN JANUARY 1, 1854.

IN proportion to the advancement and general diffusion of literature ought to be the publication of references to, and accounts of, the multifarious works with which the genius of past and of the present times has enlightened and benefited mankind. BIBLIOGRAPHY, or a knowledge of particular books, the peculiarities of editions, their value, and what may be termed an intimate acquaintance with the history and character of a work, has, however, been singularly neglected in this country; and rich as our literature is in most departments, that particular class, on which all others are in a great degree dependent, is confessedly deficient. In France, Spain, Italy, Germany, and Holland, numerous volumes have been written on the literary history of those several countries, together with others on universal literature; but in England, excepting a few catalogues of books on particular subjects, no general Bibliographical work deserving the name was ever published until the appearance of the "Bibliotheca Britannica" by Watt, which will be again alluded to. It is not intended to explain the cause of the low state of Bibliographical knowledge in England, but it may, perhaps, be partly ascribed to the folly of acquiring, at enormous prices, works which are no otherwise valuable than for their rarity, consisting, as that rarity sometimes does, in a colophon or the name of a printer, the texture or colour of the paper, the width of the margin, the occurrence or omission of a date, or even in an obvious defect. Mankind are disposed to remember the abuse rather than the utility of pursuits in which few are deeply interested; and in the ridicule which the enthusiastic zeal of bibliomaniacs has cast on Bibliography, they lose sight of the fact, that all accurate knowledge is in a greater or less degree absolutely dependent thereon.

The accumulated wisdom of ages is deposited in Books; can there, then, be more useful information than that by which these repositories of knowledge are rendered available to the world by proper classification, separating the valuable from the worthless, and presenting the student with a convenient and trustworthy guide to the respective sources? Bibliography is, in truth, the mariner's compass of learning; for without it the student would be floating on the immense ocean of literature, with no other means than what chance afforded, of attaining the object of his voyage. To pursue the simile, it may be said that the art of navigation is not more indispensable to a mariner than is a certain acquaintance with Bibliography to him who passes any part of his life in intellectual pursuits.

Dr. Johnson has observed, with his usual elegance and propriety, "by the means of Catalogues only can be known what has been written on every part of learning, and the hazard avoided of encountering difficulties which have already been cleared, discussing questions which have already been decided, and digging in mines of literature which former ages have exhausted;" but a bare Catalogue, though the most laborious, is the humblest part of a Bibliographer's duty. Mere industry may enable him to copy titles, names, and dates; but to classify and arrange works into the several divisions and subdivisions, which a student requires—to describe the merits of each work, and the peculiarity of each edition—to point out the true from the spurious edition—and to give such a collation of works which do not either by signatures, pagination, or otherwise, present the means of ascertaining whether it be complete or imperfect—to trace rare works from library to library, in order that those who wish to consult them may know where they are deposited—and to give the different prices at which books have at various times been sold, that an idea may be formed of their value—require a combination of talent, research, and industry, which entitle the labours of a Bibliographer to much more respect than has hitherto been conceded to them.

In thus stating the acquirements necessary for a Bibliographer, the Editor has in view rather to deprecate severity of criticism on whatever defects may be found in this work, than, with unseemly presumption, to exaggerate the merit of its compilation. No one can be insensible to the errors which are incidental to the first edition of a work of this nature; for, as it is well remarked by Monsieur Renouard, whose reputation as a Bibliographer proves that he must be well aware of the difficulties incidental to the pursuit:—"Si bien préparé soit-on, et quelques soins que l'on apporte à la composition d'un ouvrage bibliographique, il est encore presque impossible de ne pas laisser dans sa première publication une multitude d'erreurs, de lacunes, de suppositions, de mensonges involontaires." After these important observations on the utility and difficulties of Bibliography, the Editor will proceed to allude, in as few words as possible, to the plan and contents of Watt's "Bibliotheca Britannica," to show in what points these volumes supply information which is not contained in that valuable compilation. In speaking of the Bibliotheca Britannica, no praise can be too high; for, notwithstanding its imperfections, it contains a mass of most valuable matter, disposed in such form as to be of great assistance to persons desirous of ascertaining what works have been written on a particular subject, or by a particular author. It is obvious, however, that, from the very extensive plan adopted by Watt, his work must necessarily be incomplete in various points, which, though of minor detail, are of great importance. Thus, for instance, he gives neither the collation nor prices of books; nor does he afford a guide to the best authors on any particular subject, or to the best editions—information of the highest value to foreigners and students.

THE BIBLIOGRAPHER'S MANUAL was undertaken to supply a desideratum in English Literature, by presenting the Collector, the Author, and the Bookseller with a notice, in alphabetical order, under the names of their respective authors, of the principal works in the various departments of Divinity, Ecclesiastical and Civil History, more particularly of Great Britain, Biography, Voyages and Travels, Antiquities, Heraldry, Jurisprudence, Sciences, the Arts and Belles Lettres, &c.

It was stated in the prospectus that these notices would exceed twenty thousand; but as the Editor proceeded, he was incessantly compelled to extend the limits which he had prescribed to himself; and the work does, in fact, contain notices of upwards of fifty thousand distinct books, published in, or relating to, Great Britain and Ireland, from the invention of printing to the present time. He deceives himself, if this fact will not be deemed a sufficient apology for the work having exceeded what was originally contemplated. To these notices are annexed,

First. A concise account of the merits of the work, taken occasionally from Reviews, but more generally from writers of established reputation.

Secondly. Its peculiar bibliographical character, such as the mode in which it was originally published, its contents, limited number printed, rarity, whether the name of the author was real or fictitious, and occasionally supplying the name of the author of a work published anonymously; if an early work, to whom dedicated; the merits and variations of the different editions; where and when printed, also notices of reprints of rare works, and of tracts, whether in the Somers and Harleian Miscellanies, or similar publications, and likewise of those early Voyages and Travels which appear in Pinkerton's, Churchill's, the Harleian and other Collections—in a word, all the points which belong to the "history" of a book are stated.

Thirdly Collations of the contents of the rarer and more important articles, including a list of the plates.

Fourthly. References to the number in the catalogues of celebrated sales, specifying the price for which the work was sold.

Upon the utility of such information it is scarcely necessary to insist: without a Manual of this nature the collector may indeed, as is happily remarked by a French Bibliographer, form a collection, but not a library, since the one consists simply of a mass of books purchased without knowledge or discrimination of subjects or editions, but a library, by which is meant a selection of the best writers, and of the best editions, depends more upon the erudition, judgment, and taste of the possessor, than upon his wealth or liberality.

No doubt can be entertained of the utility of attaching to the title of a book the opinion entertained of its merits by those who have undertaken to pronounce a critical opinion upon them, either in reference to the collector or to the student: to both they serve as a guide. But with respect to the various criticisms which will be found scattered throughout the work, the Editor wishes to be understood, that when no authority is given, he states the general character of the works, rather than offers an opinion of his own. In the case of works of a religious nature, the criticism will of course be understood as expressing the estimation in which the work is held by the particular sect to which the author belonged.

The importance of knowing the exact character of, and the difference between the editions of any work, is well understood by authors and literary persons, but to more general readers it may be necessary to remark, that in each edition an author is presumed to have availed himself of the additional information, and to have corrected the errors, which the suggestions of critical journals, or of his friends, or his own studies, may have supplied. It is not, perhaps, too much to say, with respect to works on history, or consisting of a condensation of, or criticisms founded upon, mere facts, that no first edition is so perfect as its author is capable of rendering it. Until his labours are before him in print, and time has cooled the fervour of mind incidental to composition, he is scarcely competent to estimate, calmly and dispassionately, the value and bearing of the materials of which history is composed. A single additional fact, derived possibly from an obscure volume, or a manuscript, which escaped his researches when his work was written, may overturn or confirm his most ingenious hypotheses. To works of imagination, novels, poetry, and the drama, the value of revision is almost as great—they supply as it were the last touches of the master; and in the second edition the author introduces those improvements which, (in an age when the Horatian precept has ceased to apply, either in principle or practice) are rarely to be found in the first impression; whilst every subsequent reprint affords him the opportunity of imparting greater accuracy, more abundant information, and more elaborate polish to his lucubrations. Hence arises the immense superiority of a second edition over the first, of a third over a second, and thus in numerical progression of each over its predecessor. The claims which a first sometimes possesses over a later edition of a work, consists chiefly of remarks which prudence or justice may have induced an author to cancel. A reference to the first edition of an early writer is, however, often essential in restoring the correct reading of a line or passage. If a typographical error is made in the second edition, it is almost certain to be perpetuated in succeeding impressions, from its being the practice to print each edition from the one which immediately preceded it. Moreover, there is a peculiarity about every edition of every work, which renders it imperative that it should be carefully referred to by an editor of such work: it may also happen that a first edition contains valuable extraneous matter, which a desire to impart more consistency to his labours, caused the author afterwards to omit. To those who write books, a knowledge of such peculiarities in editions is indispensable; and by those who only read them, but who are interested in the curiosities and technicalities of literature, the information will not be despised.

It is the duty of an author to know the history of a work which he consults: by making the statements it contains his authority, he, in some measure, adopts them as his own; and a Manual, which enables him to form an idea of the degree of credit that ought to be attached to the book before him, cannot fail to facilitate and benefit his labours. A critical examiner of his authorities, knows that the slightest fact—the date, the dedication, whether a private work or one intended for general circulation, for example—are points by which the credibility of a writer may, possibly, be impugned or confirmed.

By the Collations the buyer and seller are alike enabled to judge whether a book is perfect; hence disputes may, with slight trouble, be avoided; and although at first sight this may seem but a very trifling recommendation to a bibliographical work, where they are for the first time given, those who have collated even a single volume will at once believe that much time has been consumed in this object; and it is hoped they will agree with the Editor in thinking that it has not been thrown away.

The utility of stating the prices at which books have sold at public auctions, and thereby to give the public the means of judging of their value, must be sufficiently obvious. Although no conclusion can be safely drawn from those prices, nor can they by any means be depended upon as a certain guide, still, the same which books have produced at public sales will be referred to as authorities, and the variations in their value must prove a source of amusement from their indicating the changes which have taken place in caprice or taste.

It has consequently happens, that for some literary persons, a person wishes to consult a particular book of great rarity, but is wholly at a loss to discover where a copy is to be found. In the instances of uncommon works, the editor has stated if it is in the British Museum, in the Bodleian, or other public Library; and should a copy have been sold by auction within the present century, a reference is usually given to the number in the catalogue in which it is mentioned, thus affording a clue to its present possessor.

It is due to his own labours that the Editor should state that this is the first attempt in England to supply these various points of Bibliographical information in one work; and though the celebrated "Manuel du Libraire" of Brunet has served as his model, that valuable compilation is extremely imperfect in relation to British literature.

The Editor is aware of an objection to which his work is liable from the circumstance of many books, which may be considered worthless, being noticed, merely because they have occasionally brought large prices at public sales; but, as he might have incurred still greater blame, had he omitted them, he has preferred admitting a few whose claim to a place might be disputed, than leaving out any work to which an ideal value has been attached, remembering the remark of Johnson, "that no book is so worthless as not to contain something good." It is also to be remembered, that scarcely any two persons agree in their estimation of a book, and that their taste and judgment are influenced by their attachment to particular pursuits. On the other hand, he is sensible that he may unconsciously have omitted articles of importance, more especially very recent publications, from the difficulty of keeping pace with the daily productions of the press. For these, and all other omissions, he trusts to the candour of his readers: all who have had occasion to search for information on a particular subject, must be aware that much valuable matter has escaped them, notwithstanding the most careful inquiries.

It would be a waste of time to name the particular sources which have been consulted. A single glance will, the Editor flatters himself, ensure credence to his statement, that many hundred of volumes have been constantly referred to, and that, in numerous instances, the books noticed have been carefully examined. The merit of indefatigable industry will not, he hopes, be denied him; and though his labours have not required either genius or splendid talents, he, nevertheless, trusts that he may be deemed a safe and useful pioneer to the present and future explorers of the inexhaustible mine of British Literature. The traveller well knows the importance of a road-book and direction posts; the mariner is equally sensible of the value of charts and beacons; and the youthful and ardent literary husbandman, on entering the immeasurable fields of knowledge, will soon learn from the assurances of the veteran labourer, as well as from his own experience, that his progress will be painful, his success uncertain, without the assistance which, the Editor humbly hopes, these volumes will supply.

The little that remains to be said is an acknowledgment, the sincerity of which must supply its deficiency in expression, of the Editor's gratitude to the numerous friends by whose kind assistance and advice his labours have been at once cheered and benefited; more particularly

To the Right Honourable THOMAS GRENVILLE, who is no less the master of the contents, than of the property of his books, and who, in the most obliging manner, tendered him the use of his splendid library, as well as of his interesting catalogues, with which, it may be hoped, he may be induced to favour the public.

In common with most persons interested in literary pursuits, the Editor is under many obligations to PHILIP AUGUSTUS HANMOTT, Esq., to whose late curious and extensive library liberal access was always afforded him.

To Messrs. PAYNE and FOSS, Mr. COCHRAN, Mr. PICKERING, and especially Mr. RODD, for their constant advice and most useful suggestions, he is eminently obliged.

To Mr. R. H. EVANS he is particularly indebted for many valuable hints, and for the loan of the sale catalogues of the numerous important libraries which have passed through his hands, which exhibit a profound knowledge of his profession.—To Messrs. BORTHWICK he begs to return his thanks for access to their extensive series of catalogues.

Gratitude demands a strong acknowledgment to the late WILLIAM MEREDITH, Esq., under whose hospitable roof this Manual was commenced in the year 1820. By the late RICHARD HENK, Esq., (who, as a collector, united the judgment of a Cotton with the princely munificence of a Harley,) he was honoured with approbation and encouragement, and with the offer of access to his immense literary treasures.

NOTICE TO THE THIRD PART.

Among the additions to the present Part, Defoe has received considerable attention, and the list of his writings is at least more complete than any yet published, although still open to critical questioning. I take occasion to make especial allusion to this article, because it gives me an opportunity of replying to an attack, which, though insignificant in itself, assumes form by being admitted into an influential journal. I am accused of having dealt unfairly with the public, in announcing 'the Works of Defoe,' and then stopping short at seven volumes. To which I reply that I never announced, and never dreamt of publishing, the entire Works of Defoe, even were it possible to ascertain exactly what they are. I merely announced 'The Novels and Miscellaneous Works,' as the principal title will shew, and as had been done before in Lewis's edition; and this announcement I have fulfilled. I have not only published all the Novels and several of the Miscellaneous Works, but have never even relinquished my intention of proceeding, although in the face of almost certain loss. My present list of Defoe's Works, constructed on a novel plan, will not only shew the extent and uncertainty of what is attributable to him, but also how many abortive attempts, for want of public encouragement, have from time to time been made to republish them. The fact is, that although Defoe ranks as a Classic, and is a household word with the English public, the only one of his works they currently buy is 'Robinson Crusoe'; all the rest find but a slow and unrequiting

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

Collectors and literary men eagerly endeavour to complete their sets of Defoe, and, unable to obtain modern editions of a great proportion of his writings, buy up the rarer volumes at a large price; but this class of buyers constitutes a very limited portion of the reading public, quite insufficient to support a popular form of publication. My seven volumes, published at 3s. 6d. each, comprehend in substance the whole twenty of the previous edition which was published at £5. If the public will afford sufficient encouragement, I will go on producing in the same ratio; otherwise there is no mutuality of purpose. I permit myself further to observe, that every volume is complete in itself, and sells separately, so that a purchaser who gets 'Moll Flanders and the History of the Devil' in one volume—hitherto a guinea's-worth—for three and sixpence; or 'the Plague, the Fire of London, and the Storm' for a like sum, will not have much reason to complain, even should he never get all 'the Fifteen Comforts of an honest Scotchman' on the same terms.

The labour bestowed on the present Part has been excessive, and yet might advantageously have been more. Every page, almost every article, has received corrections or additions. To the discerning bibliographer it will be sufficient to point out the following: Dallaway, Daniell, Dante, Decker, Dibdin, Digby, D'Israeli, Domesday, Donovan, Drake, Drayton, Drolleries, Drummond, Dugdale, Dunton, Edgeworth, Epitaphs, Euclid, Euclides, Euripides, Faber, Fielding, Fisher (Payne), Fox, Franklin, Freemasons, Fuller.

This valuable publication originated with Robert Dodsley, at the suggestion of Edmund Burke who was for some years editor and principal contributor

Some time after the year 1791 the copy right and stock from 1758 to 1790, were purchased by Ottridge and other booksellers. After which period Messrs Rivingtons who had for a short time previously (during the illness of Mr Dodsley) been agents for the work published a rival continuation which lasted from 1791 to 1812 and again from 1820 to 1824 when the two merged by arrangement into one

Some sets of the work have been made up by substituting Rivingtons continuation with fictitious titles. How to distinguish the substitution may be ascertained by referring to the preface of the General Index published by Baldwin & Co in 1828, 8vo price 1l 4s

A general index 1758-80 was published by Dodsley in 1763 another 1781-80 by the Rivingtons in 1799 (and a third superseding the previous ones from the commencement to 1819 in 1826. And as this complete Index is only applicable to the original or Dodsley series, the volumes published by Rivingtons are generally rejected.)

— Metamorphosis, or Golden Asse, and Philosophical Works, translated by Thomas Taylor. London, 1822. 8vo. 15s. LARGE PAPER, 1l. 10s.

An esteemed version by the translator of Plato and Aristotle. Some copies of the small, and all the large paper copies, have suppressed passages, generally placed at the end of the volume.

Bishop Warburton supposed that this work was intended, not only as a satire upon the vices of the times, but as a laboured attempt to recommend the mysteries of the Pagan Religion, in opposition to Christianity, to which he represents him as an inveterate enemy. This opinion, however, has been contested by Dr. Lardner.

— Thomas C. Dormant and Extinct Baronage of England, from the Norman Conquest to the year 1809 Lond 1807—9 4to 3 vols

A work of no merit. The greater part of its contents was copied from Dugdale's Baronage but as many of that writer's most important statements, and all his references to his authorities are omitted it is of infinitely less value. The account of titles created since Dugdale wrote, is chiefly taken from Collins. An appendix is annexed to the Stemmata Anglicana Brockett, 466 8/ 4s Duke of York, 428 8/ 11s — LARGE PAPER, 5/ 6s

— Genealogical and Biographical History of the Dormant and Extinct Peerage of England, from the Norman Conquest, including the Royal Families anterior to the House of Brunswick. Lond 1812 8vo Vol. i. 10s

This volume is the only one which appeared of an intended new edition in six octavo volumes, of the Dormant and Extinct Baronage. It commences (p. 1 to 145) with a genealogical account of the Extinct Royal Families of England, which is a useful compilation from Sandford, and other expensive works, though by no means remarkable for accuracy or research. The titles of Feudage treated of, extend in alphabetical order from Abergavenny to Banbury, (p. 145 to the end,) and present the best of the various specimens of the author's genealogical abilities. The elaborate notices of the singular claim to the Banbury Peerage would alone render this volume of some value, as the printed name, whence it was compiled, may not be easily perceived.

— Thomas C. Stemmata Anglicana; or, a miscellaneous Collection of Genealogy. Lond. 1822, 4to. [Afterwards published under the title of Genealogical and Heraldic Gleanings, and as Dormant and Extinct Baronage, vol. iv. 1837.] 4to. 15s L P 1/ 1s

This volume commences with a treatise on the various dignities of Peerage, and the manner of establishing claims to them. The only valuable part of the work is that entitled 'Barones Rejcti', being an account of individuals who appear to have held the rank of Barons but who are not noticed by other writers which in many instances exhibit proofs of considerable research. The appendix contains 'Additions and Emendations to the authors Dormant and Extinct Baronage, with Indices to the whole work.'

[This should be accompanied by Castelli Lexicon Heptaglotton, folio, generally bound in 2 vols.] The 8 vols. 80l. and upwards.

'All the preceding Polyglots were eclipsed in use and excellence, if not in splendour and size, by that which is called the English and London Polyglot.'—Carpovicius.

The last leaf but one of the preface is cancelled in many copies, in which mention is made of the Protector in these words: 'Primo autem commemorandi quorum favore chartam a vectigalibus immunem habuimus, quod cuique adhuc annis (1652 a concilio secretiore primò concessum, postea a serenissimo D. PROTECTORIS ejusque consilio, operis promovendi causa, benignè confirmatum ac continuatum erat, quibus, &c. In the loyal copies the clause is altered, and the words 'Sereniss. PRINCIPIS D. CAR. LUOV. PR. PALATIN.' are found. In some copies are found a dedication to 'King Charles II (reprinted 1811. folio) and 'An advertisement to the Subscribers, and others, unto whom any copies of the first volume of the Bible shall be delivered,' dated Sept 4, 1654, on a 4to leaf, which latter has been reprinted by Todd, in his life of Walton, p. 68, and by Dr. Dibdin in his Introduction to the Greek and Latin Classics, pp. 22 3.

In the Apparatus Criticus is a treatise entitled 'Explicatio Idiotismorum, seu Proprietatum Linguæ Hebræicæ et Græcæ quæ sæpius in Scripturis occurrunt,' in which the author asks, in what manner the sense of scripture is to be determined. Over the fourth and fifth answers (in most copies) a paper, containing other fourth and fifth answers, is pasted.

LARGE PAPER, 12 copies printed, all with the royal preface. Copies of which are in the Royal Library, British Museum, St. Paul's, St. John's, Camb Shrewsbury School Library, Lambeth, and in Lord Spencer's Collection.

To complete, says Mr. Horne, the London Polyglott, the following publications should be added 1. Paraphrasis Chaldaica in Librum priorem et posteriolem Chronicorum, Auctore Rabbi Josepho, cum Versione Latina a Davide Wilkins. Amst. 1715, 4to 2 Dr Castell's Lexicon Heptaglotton. The purchaser should also procure Dr John Owen's Considerations on the Polyglott, 1658 18mo. Bishop Walton's reply, entitled 'The Considerator Considered,' &c. 1659 18mo and a most important work, Walton's Introductio ad Lectionem Linguarum Orientalium, &c. Lond. 1654. 18mo.

Of the latter work one hundred copies were reprinted 1815, in folio, of which 97 were destroyed by fire in March 1822. Of the three copies saved one was presented by Mr. Bagster to the British Museum, one to the Rev. H. J. Todd, and the other remained in the publisher's possession. [The prolegomena has been edited, with variorum notes, by Archd. Wrangham, 2 vols. 8vo. Cantab. 1828. 9s. LARGE PAPER, 18s.]

For further information respecting this valuable Polyglott, consult Horne's Crit. Introd. to the Scriptures, II. appendix, 28-30. Todd's Memoirs of Bishop Walton. Clarke's Bibliogr. Dictionary, I. 248-70. Butler's Horæ Bibl. I. 138-43. Dr. Dibdin's Introduction to the Classics, 1827, vol. I. pp. 30-35.

In 1797, the Rev. Josiah Pratt issued 'A Prospectus, with Specimens of a New Polyglott Bible, in Quarto,' and in 1799, another 'Prospectus, with Specimens of an octavo Polyglott Bible,' but for want of encouragement the design has not been carried into execution. A similar fate has attended 'The Plan and Specimen of Biblia Polyglotta Britannica,' published and circulated by the Rev. Adam Clarke, LL.D. in 1810, in folio, reprinted in the Classical Journal, IV. 403-7.

A good account of the Plan of it may be seen in Todd's Memoirs of Bishop Walton, I. 385-9.

Biblia Hebraica (sine punctis)

accurante Nath. Forster. Oxon. 1750. 4to. 3l. 8s.

This is the first edition of the Hebrew Bible, except that in the Polyglot, printed in England. It has, however, been highly censured by Masch, though Dr. Adam Clarke pronounces it to be 'the most elegant and correct of the Anti-Masoretic Bibles.' LARGE PAPER, in 2 vols. 5l. 5s.

— The Old Testament, English and Hebrew, with Remarks critical and grammatical on the Hebrew, and Corrections of the Englah, by Anselm Bayly, LL.D. Lond. 1774. royal 8vo. 4 vols. 3l. 10s.

An useful edition of the Masoretic Hebrew text for those desirous of learning Hebrew. The Hebrew is printed in long lines on the left hand page; and the authorised English version on the right hand page, divided into two columns. The critical notes, which are few, are placed under the English text.

— Vetus Testamentum Hebraicum, cum variis Lectionibus, edidit Benj. Kennicott. Oxonii, 1776-80. folio, 2 vols. 7l. 17s. 6d.

This edition of the Hebrew Bible is, according to the learned Dr. Henry Owen, 'a work which contains, with all its imputed defects, a vast treasure of Hebrew learning, which, judiciously applied, will contribute more to rectify and restore the Hebrew text than all the methods hitherto practised.' It has also been pronounced by one of the most wary of German critics to be 'a first rate and even unique ornament of a theological collection.' Sir M. M. Sykes, pt. I. 471, Morocco, 8l. 8s. Gossett, 500, Russia, 9l. 19s. 6d. For a further account of this splendid work see Bishop Marsh's Divinity Lectures, part II. pp. 105-8. Monthly Review, vol. IV. 92-100, LXV. 173-82, 321-8, and LXV. 121-31. To Dr. Kennicott's Hebrew Bible, M. de Rousset published an important supplement in 4 vols. 4to. printed at Parma, 1784-7, entitled, Varia Lectiones Veteris Testamenti.—See KENNICOTT, B.

Biblia Hebraica, or the Hebrew Scriptures of the old Testament, without Points, after the Text of Kennicott, with various Readings, and English Notes, by B. Boothroyd, D.D. Pontefract, 1810-16. 4to. 2 vols. 3l. 13s. 6d.

This edition, according to Mr. Home, 'is peculiarly interesting to the Hebrew scholar and critic, as it contains, in a condenser form, the substance of the most valuable and expensive works. The type is very clear, and the poetical parts of the Hebrew Scriptures are printed in hemistichs, according to the arrangement proposed by Bp. Lowth, and adopted by Abp. Newcome. There are copies on Large Paper in royal quarto.

Biblia Hebraica, ad Editionem Vanderhooght, à J. S. C. F. Frey. Lond. 1812. 8vo. 2 vols. 2/ 2s

This edition is in no estimation, and is said to be very incorrect. It is entirely superseded by D'Allemand's edition of Vander Hooght. 8vo. London, Duncan, 1823, frequently reprinted (Bohn, 1852), 10s 6d.

Biblia Hebraica, Versibus, Capitibus, et Sectionibus intermixta. Lond. 1822 and 1826. 12mo 1/ 1s

Another edition was printed without the points, 12. 1s. Both are on the basis of Vanderhooght's, and owe their character for accuracy to the talent and assiduity of Messrs. H. Jacob and J. D'Allemand. The various readings of the Hebrew and Samaritan Pentateuch are given, together with the Masoretic notes, termed Keri and Ketib. To some copies an English version will be found opposite, in others a French, &c. An English and Hebrew edition of the Old Testament was published by Bagster, 1826, 12mo. 1l. 11s 6d.

Dr. Adam Clarke; and the Syriac Pentateuch, in the Library of New College, Oxford.

This edition, printed by Roger Daniel, which professes to follow accurately the Roman edition of 1586, has been severely handled by Walton, Bos, Maasch, and Harle. According to Mr. Horne, the editors have altered and interpolated the text in several places, in order to bring it nearer to the Hebrew text, and the modern versions. Drury, 567, 16s. Dr. Cotton thus briefly notices, 'Bible recognised by Richard Taverner. London, by John Byddell, for Tho. Berthelet, 1539, &c. and an imperfect copy of the Bible, as set forth by Abp. Crammer Southwark, by J. Nicolson, 1539? &c. is described in Dr. Dibdin's edition of Ames' Typographical Antiquities, iii. 57-8.

Black letter, with wood cuts, printed under the correction of Coverdale and auspices of Thomas, Lord Cramwell, (whose arms are on the Title), containing some improvement of Matthew's translation. It is generally called the Great Bible, and is supposed to be the same which Grafton and Whitchurch were secretly printing at Paris in 1538, when, being interrupted by the Inquisition, they finished it in London, 1539. [This edition has been styled the first edition of Cranmer's Bible, but erroneously.] Copies are in the British Museum, Lambeth, St. Paul's, and other libraries, and one on VELLOW is in the library of St. John's Coll Cambridge, specially printed for Lord Crumwell. Lea Wilson's copy was fine and perfect, as is the Grenville copy. Sotheby (Pickering), Aug. 1854, (imperfect), 12l. Gardner (Lea Wilson's copy), 121l.

Collation. Title in red and black, on the reverse 'the names of all the booke'; 'Kalendar and almanac' (beginning 1539) four pages, 'An exhortacion' &c. 1 page; 'The summe and contente' 2 pages, 'A Prologue' &c. 1 page; 'A description' &c. 2 pages; Genesis, fol. i.—lxxxi. On the last is 'Fynished in Apryll, anno m.cccc. xxxix.' A full page has 42 lines. The engraved title pages are said to have been designed by Hans Holbein. This edition is readily distinguished from the six succeeding ones, by having the Holbein frontispieces to the Apocrypha, and not to the New Testament; and by the several wood cuts having on each side of them a pillar or border, which were omitted in the subsequent editions.

— (TAVERNER). The Bible, in Five Parts or Volumes. Lond. by Jhon Day and Wylliam Sere, 1549. 16mo.

This edition is thus divided: 1. The Pentateuch. 2. The Boke of Jouna to the Boke of Hiob. 3. The Psalter—The Boke of the Prophet Malachi. 4. The Bokes called the Apocrypha—The thyrd Booke of the Machabees. (The first translation of that booke in English.) 5. The new Testament. Each part has a title page and a colophon. See Ames, by Dibdin, iv 68—9 The second and fourth part Williams, 184, morocco, 7l. 2s. 6d. Part 2. Sir M. M. Sykes, pt. i. 228, 3l. 13s. 8d.

There exists doubts as to whether more than one edition of this Bible was printed in parts, in 12mo—no perfect set being known to exist. Mr Wilson has examined a copy of vol. 1, containing the Pentateuch, dated 1551, and from which he reprinted the preface (List, p. 131*). He possessed vols 2 and 4, dated 1549; (List, no 17, and pp 129* and 130*)—also vol. 3, dated 1550. Parts 2 and 4 are in the British Museum. Part 4 is in the Bodleian, and at Lambeth. The Duke of Sussex, pts. 2 and 4.

Dr Cotton, p. 21; he also notices two other editions of the Bible in 1549, 4to one printed for John Cawood, the other by Richard Grafton. A copy of the latter is in the Baptist Museum, Bristol.

In Skipton's Travels, among the Church-ill Collection, vol. vi. 482, this edition is said to be 'printed at Zurich, by Christopher Forshower, 16 August, 1550.' — (KING JAMES, OR AUTHORIZED). The holy Bible, conteyning the old Testament and the new: newly translated out of the originall Tongues, and with the former Translations diligently compared and revised by his Maestie's speciall Commandement. Lond. by Robert Barker, 1611. folio.

BLACK LETTER. First edition of the authorised translation now in use, commonly called King James's Bible.

[Two impressions, both printed with large type, issued with this date. The first may be known by its having a large wood cut coat of arms of King James on the recto of the leaf commencing "The Genealogies of the Holy Scripture," and other variations pointed out in Cotton's List, p. 60, and in Notes and Queries no. 249 Aug 5, 1854. The second issue may be readily identified by the arms being wanting, their absence filled in with a letter-press title [within two black lines.] "The Genealogies of holy Scripture, by J S." and by the remarkable typographical blunders in the dedication to King James, where in line 4 the word or is printed ox, and the name of CHARIS is printed CHXIS, &c., &c. The second issue is often to be found with a title dated 1612, the new Test. title bearing 1611.]

Collation.—First impression. Engraved title by C. Boel. Letter press title within wood cut border. Dedication to the King ("To the Most,") 8 pages, the first one 27 lines, the catch word lation. The Translators to the Reader, 2 pages, the first commencing with an ornamental letter Z, the last finishing with the word Amen. Calendar, January to Dec 12 pages. An Almanac for xxxix yeares [1603 to 1641], one page. To find Easter for ever, one page [i.e. the two on one leaf.] The fable and Calendar expressing the order of Psalmes and Lessons, 1 p., on the back of which Proper Lessons to read for the first Lessons [on Sundays.] Lessons proper for Holy Dayes, 1 p.; on the back, Proper Psalmes on certaine dayes, &c. continued on the next page Septuagesima ending Monday and Tuesday in Whitsun Weeks, and the catch word "The." The names and orders of the bookes wholly printed in black, then follow the Royal arms, occupying the whole page, on the back of which the top line is "The Genealogies of the Holy Scriptures" continued, 16 leaves.—in all, 17 leaves.] The Dedication ending ("). Introductory matter, with Genealogies, form 84 leaves. Map of Canaan, by J. More and Jo. Speede, dated 1611. Gen. 1 to Maccabees 2, xv. cccxvi New Test. wood cut title as before. Matth. i. to Revelations xxii. Aa vi.

The collation of this edition given by Cotton and Lea Wilson refer to the second issue of 1611, and differs but slightly in the preliminary matter, the Dedication having a distinguishing mark ¶ TO THE MOST; it also answers for the editions of 1617 (N.T. UNPRINTED) 1634, 1640 (N.T. 1639)—in all which, as well as the two issues of 1611, the Psalmes commence on Bbb 4. But in a small type Black letter edit., printed by Barker in 1613, they commence on Kk. Denyer, 28, imperfect, 62 54 Williams, fine copy, wanting titles and map, 92, 98. Pickering, pt. 2, 251 108. [In this beautiful edition the text has undergone a complete revision. See Lea Wilson, no. 130.]

In an edition of the Bible printed in the reign of Charles, the text of Ps. xiv. 1, ran "The fool hath said in his heart there is a God." For which error, according to Nye (in his Defence of the Canon of the New Testament), the printers were fined 8,000*l*. and all the copies suppressed.

In an edition of the Bible, Barker and Lucas, 1632, called the "Wicked Bible," according to Dr. Haylin in his Life of Laud, book III. p. 228, the word "not" was omitted in the 7th commandment. The printers were called before the High Commission, fined deeply, and the whole impression destroyed.

[First edition of the authorized version in Scotland. There were two editions, both in 8vo, issued in this year at Edinburgh, one by "Robert Young," the other by "The Printers to the King's most excellent majesty."]

This Bible is printed in double columns, and bears a great resemblance to some London editions of the same period.

A handsome edition containing a very material error of the press, by substituting ye for we may appoint over this business, in Acts vi. 8. This error has been without foundation imputed to the Independents, and sometimes to the Presbyterians. It appeared in many other editions, prior to 1635. Bindley, pt. 1. 388, mor 5l 15s. 6d. Copies, with the Prayer, of the edition of 1638, are not uncommon on LARGE PAPER. Gardner, 7f. 15s.

A neat pocket Bible, printed in parts by Evan Tyler.

— The Bible, with marginal Notes, shewing Scripture to be the best Interpreter of Scripture. By John Canne. Amsterdam, 1644. 4to.

The marginal references of this learned Brownist are generally very judicious and apposite. The later editions, which pass under the name of Canne's Bible, are full of errors, and crowded with references, which do not belong to the original author.

— The Bible. Cambridge, by John Field, 1653. 24mo.

THIS edition, says Mr. Horne, is usually called the Pearl Bible, from the very small type with which it was printed, but is disfigured by very numerous errata, some of which are of importance. An imitation of it was made in Holland in 1668, but the genuine edition is known by having the four first psalms on a page without turning over. White Knights, 445, morocco, with silver clasps, 1l 13s. Williams, 198, morocco, 4l. 9s.

D'Irrell, in his Curiosities of Literature, has an article on 'Pearl Bibles and Six Thousand Errata,' from which the following instances are copied:—Rom. vi. 13. 'Neither yield ye your members as instruments of righteousness unto sin,' for unrighteousness.—1 Cor. vi. 9. 'Know ye not that the unrighteous shall inherit the kingdom of God,' for shall not inherit. 'This erratum served as the foundation of a dangerous doctrine, for many libertines urged the text from this corrupt Bible, against the reproofs of a divine.'

The Bibles printed during the time of the Commonwealth have been generally reputed to be full of errors:—In a tract entitled 'The London Printer his Lamentation; or the Press oppressed or overpressed, 1680.' 4to. (reprinted in the Harleian Miscellany), it is said, that Bill and Barker had contrived to get into their possession 'ever since the sixth of March 1655, the manuscript copy of the last translation of the Holy Bible in English, attested with the hands of the venerable and learned translators in King James's time' And that having thus secured themselves from instant detection, they published editions filled with 'egregious blasphemies and damnable errata.'—Dr Cotton

Beautiful editions, with short explanatory notes and philological scholia. According to Mr. Horne, Mr. Reeves' notes are selected with great judgment from the labours of Patrick, Louth, Whithy, and others; and his mode of printing the text is admirable. The historical parts, which are in prose, are printed in contiguous paragraphs, and the poetical parts are divided into verses. Each book is divided into sections, conformable to the natural divisions of the several subjects; and to facilitate reference the chapters and verses are distinctly pointed out in the margin. An edition, without notes, 8vo 4 vols. 16s. FINE PAPER, 18s.

This work, which may be pronounced a library of divinity, was published under the sanction of the venerable Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge. Upwards of 30,000 copies have been sold. Of the labour attending this publication, some idea may be formed, when it is stated, that the works of upwards of 160 authors, amounting to several hundred volumes, have been consulted for it. There is a useful concordance in 4to edited by the Rev. T. W. Bellamy, M.A., which is usually bound up with this commentary. and in the year 1818, the Rev. Fifth and best edition, stereotyped; the largest work ever submitted to that process. Mr. Horne deems it 'an act of bare justice to state, that he has never consulted this elaborate commentary in vain on difficult passages in the Scriptures. And in every instance, especially in the Pentateuch, he found, in Mr. Scott's Commentary, brief but solid refutations of alleged contradictions, which he could find in no other similar work extant in the English Language.' This, says Mr. Horne, is the latest and most easily accessible edition of the Anglo-Romish version of the Bible. It has been altered for the better, and made conformable to our Protestant authorised version, in several instances, which had been stigmatised by Romanists as heretical. See

This unassuming but cheap and useful commentary on the Holy Scriptures, though professedly designed for persons and families in the humbler walks of life, is not unworthy the attention of students of a higher class, who may not be able to purchase more bulky or more expensive commentaries. The fine paper copies are handsome library books. Horne

Williams, 204, morocco, 1l. 9s. A second edition, 1737, 8vo. 2 vols.

This work, according to Dr. Doddridge, 'gives many well-chosen instances of passages in the classics, which may justify many of those in Scripture that have been accounted solecisms. They illustrate the beauty of many others, and contain good observations on the divisions of chapters and verses, by which the sense of scripture is often absurd.'

'Blackwall was a strenuous advocate for the purity of the Greek style of the New Testament, which he vindicates in his first volume. The second volume, which is most valuable, contains many excellent observations on the division of the New Testament into chapters and verses, and also on various readings. The work was translated into Latin by Christopher Woll, and published at Leipzig in 1786, 4to.'—Horns.

'The work is not improperly styled a set of tragedies It is not merely a narrative of men eminent for their rank and misfortunes The plan is perfectly dramatic, and partly suggested by the pageants of the times Every personage is supposed to appear before the poet, and to relate his respective sufferings: and the figures of these spectres are sometimes finely drawn. The book never was popular here, because it had no English examples.—Warton.

Bishop Atterbury said on the appearance of Bp. Burnet's History: 'D— him, he has told a great deal of truth, but where the Devil did he learn it?' Cobb's MSS xxiii. p 107. The style, indeed, is mere chit-chat I do not believe that Burnet intentionally lied, but he was so much prejudiced, that he took no pains to find out the truth. He was like a man who resolves to regulate his time by a certain watch; but will not inquire whether the watch is right or not.'

— SAMUEL. HUDIBRAS, in three Parts. Lond. 1663, 1664, and 1678. FIRST EDITIONS.

OF PARTS I. and II. there are three different editions under the same dates, which, taken merely by the title, may easily be confounded with each other. The legitimate 'author's edition' would seem to be that printed in small 8vo., all three parts uniform in size and type, and on rather stout paper. The earliest edition of the first part is, no doubt, that called spurious, a small volume (16mo.), dated 1663, without name either of printer, publisher, or licenser. We are led to this knowledge by the following advertisement in the Publick Intelligencer, published by authority, December 23, 1663:—'There is stolen abroad a most false imperfect copy of a poem called Hudibras, without name either of printer or bookseller, as fit for so lame and spurious an impression. The true and perfect edition printed by the author's original, is sold by Richard Marriot under St. Dunstan's church in Fleet Street.' When the legitimate 'author's edition,' in small 8vo. came out in 1668, another smaller edition, the size of the spurious one, appears to have been published at the same time, and by the same publishers, probably to compete in cheapness with its rival.

The 'author's edition' of Part II. was printed uniform with its predecessor in both small 8vo. and 16mo.; and there seems to have been no spurious edition of the actual book, which was protected by the copyright 'Imprimatur' of Sir Roger l'Estrange. But a doggerel substitute, by some other writer, called Hudibras. The SECOND PART was published uniform with the spurious first part, likewise without name of printer or publisher.

Part III, first printed in 1678, appeared in only one size, i.e. small 8vo uniform with the two preceding parts of the authentic edition.

It may be convenient to give a serial list of these various parts

Part I. 16mo 'London, printed in the year 1663.' Without printer or publisher's name, and presumed to be spurious

Part I. small 8vo. Lond. Printed by J. G. for Richard Marriot, 1663, with Imprimatur Jo. Berkenhead, Nov 11, 1663

Part I. 16mo with exactly the same imprint and Imprimatur as the preceding Part II. small 8vo. Lond. Printed by T. R. for John Martyn and James Allestry, 1664, with Imprimatur Roger l'Estrange, Nov. 5, 1663.

Part II. 16mo. with the same imprint and Imprimatur

Part II. Spurious, under title of 'Hudibras, the second part.' Lond. printed in the year 1663.

Part III. small 8vo. Lond. printed for Simon Miller, 1678.

Of this there is only one ostensible edition, but there are two states of it under the same date. The earlier has five lines of Errata at the end, the later has the corrections inserted, and on the back of the title 'Licensed and entered according to the Act of Parliament for printing

Lowndes has the following note, which we have not chosen to cancel, although quite sure it is founded in error.

'This spurious second part went through three editions in the same year: the first two do not differ, except in the type: the third, entitled "Hudibras, the second Part, with the continuation of the third Canto, to which is added a fourth Canto. 1663." Field, 1869, 156.

— Hudibras. SECOND EDITION. The First and Second Part (in one volume), corrected and amended, with several additions and annotations. Lond. Printed by T. M. for John Martyn and Henry Harington, 1674, small 8vo. 412 pages. The Third Part. Lond. Printed for Robert Horne, 1679, small 8vo. 254 pages.

Voltaire says of Butler's 'Hudibras':— 'There is one English Poem, the title whereof is Hudibras; it is Don Quixote—it is our Bayle Ménippée blended together: I never met with so much wit in one single book as in this.'

CLARENDON. The History of the Rebellion and Civil War in Ireland. Lond. 1720, 8vo. with portrait of the Duke of Ormond by White.

This little piece, improperly styled History of the Rebellion and Civil War in Ireland, is merely a vindication of the Marquis of Ormonde in the peace which he made twice with the confederate catholics, and a display of their ingratitude and infatuation. Cordiale.—C'y commence la premiere partié des quatre derrenieres choses qui sont a aduenir. Ending with Explicit liber de quatuor novissimis. [William Caxton.] folio.

Supposed to be one of Caxton's earliest works, printed by him in the Low Countries, before 1474. The type resembles the English version of the Cordiale, by Earl Rivers, the second edition of the Game of Chess, the first edition of Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, and other pieces printed by Caxton. The work is conjectured to be the French translation of the 'Four Last Things,' made from the Latin by Jean Mielot, canon of St. Pierre at Lille, and secretary to Philip the Good, Duke of Burgundy, to whom he dedicated the manuscript in 1458. The printed work consists of 71 leaves, and is divided into four parts; each part is preceded by a prologue, and treats of one of the four novissimas, and is again subdivided into three minor portions. The headings are printed in red ink. See Archæologia, xxxi. pp 419-424. A copy, considered unique, is in the British Museum.

Cordiale. The Book named Cordiale; or Memorare novissima: which treateth of 'The foure last Things' (Death, last Judgment, Pains of Hell, and Joys of Heaven). 1480. folio.

This work, from Caxton's press, was translated out of French by Lord Anthoine, Earl Rivers, Lord of Scales, and of the Isle of Wight. It is printed in long lines, has neither capital letters (but spaces with small ones as a direction to insert the capitals) catchwords, nor signatures, and the leaves, amounting to 76, are not numbered. A full page contains 29 lines. Ingls. 801, morocco, 244. 8s. Alchorne, 167, 137l. 14. Towneley, pt. 1. 433, morocco, 94l. 10s. Knight, 1847, (5 leaves inlaid), mor. 45l. A good translation of a valuable and well-known work. The 31st Edition 1814, 12mo. 2s. Abernethy, in his excellent Work on the Digestive Organs, &c makes the following observations:—'It would be well if the public would follow the advice of Addison, given in the Spectator (no 198), on reading the writings of Lewis Cornaro, who having naturally a weak constitution, which he seemed to have ruined by intemperance, so that he was expected to die at the age of thirty five, did at that period adopt a strict regimen allowing himself only twelve ounces of food daily By this plan of diet he lived to more than one hundred years, and it is delightful to observe the tranquil, cheerful, and energetic state of mind accompanying his bodily health, and in a great measure induced by it.' Sir John Sinclair, in his Code of Health and Longevity, mentions an edition of 1778, as the best English translation of Cornaro's works

A most learned, conscientious, and devout Exercise, or Sermon, held forth, the Lord's-day of April, in the Year 1649, at Sir P. Temple's House in Lincoln's Inn-Fields, by Lieutenant-General Oliver Cromwell; as it was faithfully taken in Characters by Aaron Guerdon. Lond. printed in the Year 1680, 4to 17 pp. As this sermon abounds with low ribaldry, and egregious nonsense, it carries with it no internal evidence of its being genuine. It probably was written in ridicule of Cromwell, and is reprinted in the fourth volume of the Harleian Miscellany.

The first number of this periodical publication, (far superior to any thing which had hitherto appeared) was printed on the 19th of Feb. 1704 repeated every Saturday and Tuesday until 1705 and after that three times a week until its termination in May 1713 (halters, in 1841, 4 vols 41/ A copy from Feb. 19 1704, to March 23, 1710, is in the British Museum. This work paved the way for, and set the example of that species of writing soon afterwards carried to its perfection in the Tatlers and Spectators.

To Volume 2 the following title was prefixed 'A review of the affairs of France, with observations on transactions at Home' Lond. 1705, 4to, and Volumes 3 to 8 were entitled 'A Review of the state of the English nation,' 1706, 4to.

Though Lowndes and others indorse 9 vols, there is no volume 9 of the Review. It is complete in 8 volumes, the last terminating on the 29th of July, 1712. The only perfect copy known is that purchased at Chalmers' sale by Mr Crossley. At the close of the 8th volume, De Foe commenced a new paper under a similar title but of a larger size, each number consisting of only one leaf. A few numbers only exist. The

— The Life and strange surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe, of York, Mariner who lived eight and twenty years all alone in an un-inhabited Island on the coast of America, near the mouth of the Great River of Oroonoke, having been cast on shore by shipwreck, wherein all the men perished but himself. With an account how he was at last as strangely deliver'd by Pyrates. Written by himself. Lond. Printed by W. Taylor at the Ship in Pater-Noster-Row. (Part 1) 1719 8vo.

Robinson Crusoe is the most popular delightful, and extraordinary of all Defoe's Works, and has lost none of its original attraction, even at the distance of a century. Dr. Johnson observed 'no body ever laid it down without wishing it were longer.'

Lowndes says Robinson Crusoe first appeared in a periodical publication, entitled The Original London Post or Heathcote's Intelligence, from Nos 125 to No. 289 inclusively the latter, dated 7 October, 1719. But this is an error copied from Dibdin's Library Companion, p. 607, and repeated since by the compilers of the Grenville Catalogue and other Bibliographers. The following is the correct statement:

THE FIRST VOLUME of Robinson Crusoe was published in 8vo, 1719, 864 pp. preface 2 pp. with an engraving of Robinson Crusoe, sometimes placed as a frontispiece, and was entered at Stationers' Hall, by William Taylor, 23 April, 1719. Of this volume there were four editions in the same year, as is indicated on the title-page. Sixth edit. 1723, with plates.

THE SECOND VOLUME, called 'The farther adventures of Robinson Crusoe, being the second and last part of his life, &c. Lond 1719, 8vo pp 372, was entered at Stationers' Hall, 17 August, 1719. A second edition, with a map of the world, appears to have been published in the same year. This map was afterwards used in the fourth edition of the first part.

A spurious Abridgement of the first part was published by T. Cox, Amsterdams (Coffee House in 12mo 1719, of which Taylor, the publisher of the Genuine edition, warns the public by an advertisement in the St James's Post, dated Aug. 7, 1712.

Mr Wilson, the biographer of Defoe, observes, 'The popularity of the work no doubt occasioned it to be printed in The Original London Post or Heathcote's Intelligence, but it is not impossible that Taylor sold Heathcote the right of printing it in his paper. In No 125 of the Intelligence Wednesday Oct 1719, occurs the commencement of Robinson Crusoe, which was continued on the first leaf of each succeeding number without intermission to No 289, Oct 19, 1720, (and not as Dibdin states, and Lowndes copies, 7 Oct., 1719), being the end of the second volume of Robinson Crusoe.

On reverse of No 289 is an announcement of a third volume, to be had of Taylor. The third volume is that entitled 'Serious Reflections, and met with no success. Indeed, it is seldom reprinted with the work. All the above mentioned editions are in the Grenville Library, British Museum.

'Defoe, says Mr Park, 'has been charged with surreptitiously appropriating the papers of Alexander Selkirk (See SELKIRK) in the formation of this celebrated work, but the charge though repeatedly and confidently brought, appears to be destitute of foundation. Some have assumed that Arbuthnot others that Harley Earl of Oxford wrote the first part, and put it into the hands of Defoe, who wrote the second. But these assertions are without sufficient foundation, and are refuted by Wilson.

— Bibliomania; or Book-Madness: a bibliographical Romance in Six Parts. Lond. 1811 8vo.

The Bibliomania is written in dialogues or conversations, the characters introduced are well-known book collectors of the author's acquaintance. The great value of the work is in the notes, which abound with anecdotes of Books and Book Collectors, and an account of the rarer articles in their collections, and the prices at which they were sold, extracted from the sale catalogues. This work has in a great degree given a stimulus to the collecting of our early literature, and bibliography in this country, on which subjects it will be always consulted as an authority. — The characters personified are Aurelius, G. — The Bibliographical, Antiquarian, and Picturesque Tour in France and Germany. Lond. 1821. royal 8vo. 3 vols.

This work contains much curious information respecting the MSS. and rare works in public and private libraries abroad. It is printed and embellished in the same style of excellence as the Doctor's other works. A private plate of Diana of Poitiers is inserted in some copies, at p. 478 of vol. 2. engraved by Thompson from a picture by Primaticcio, formerly in the collection of Quilston Cranford, now in Earl Spencer's. This plate was destroyed after fifty impressions were taken off. Another plate of the Comte de Brienne was engraved as an additional illustration at p. 168 of vol. 2. This celebrated county history, the result of twenty years' indefatigable research, is not only considered the chef-d'œuvre of Sir William, but in the words of Mr. Gough, 'it must stand at the head of all our county histories.' 'There are works, which scrupulous accuracy, united with studious integrity, has elevated to the rank of legal evidence. Such is Dugdale's Warwickshire'—Dr. H. Fisher. Bindley, pt. 1. 1894.

— The Baronage of England: or, an historical Account of the Lives and most memorable Actions of our English Nobility. Lond. 1675-6. folio. 3 vols. in 2. 7l. 7s.

The Rev. Jos. Hunter, in his History of Hallamshire, characterizes the Baronage as a work abounding in the most valuable information, and far less inaccurate than a first attempt of the kind might reasonably be expected, where one object was to recall many half-perished names, and to arrange them in exact genealogical order; a work which none can comprehend the nicety and difficulty, but those who have actually made the experiment. 'The Baronage is distinguished by the most laborious research and extraordinary accuracy, and confers honour upon its author.'

—Nicolas. Another gentleman, well qualified to write on the subject, thus notices it: 'A work which, notwithstanding its partial defects, and the inaccuracies inseparable from so laborious an undertaking, will exist to the latest age, as a mark of its author's historical knowledge and antiquarian learning. Of those who have followed his steps, though some have been liberal in their censure, all have proved the value of his labours by the extensive use they have made of the greater portion of his statements.'—Sir M. M. Sykes, pt. i. 1069, rusia, 5s. 2s. 6d. Hindley, pt. i. 1665, 8s. Brockett, 1065, morocco, 8s. 15s. Marquis of Townshend, 1054, morocco, 18s. 6s. Roxburghes, 8506, blue morocco, 15s. 10s. In 1811, proposals for a new edition, with a continuation to that time, by T. C. Banks, were issued: it contained a specimen of the intended plan by which Dugdale's text was to be preserved entire.

Duhalde, who was never in China himself, has drawn his materials from a variety of sources, especially from the printed and manuscript account of the missionaries; but he has failed to exercise a sound judgment, and a scrupulous examination into the truth of many facts and opinions which he has admitted into his work.

Nos. 2 and 3 appeared on Tuesdays, the 23d and 30th of March, but No. 4 was published on the Saturday following; and its order of publication continued Saturdays and Tuesdays, until No. 9 of Vol. 6; after which it was published four times a week, viz. Basiliæ, per N. Brylingerum et Jo. Oporinum, mense Augusto, 1559. folio, 127. 12s.

Best edition. The first edition of Fox's 'Acts and Monuments,' in which he received material assistance from Bp Grindal, then at Strasburg. It contains Bp Hooper's 'Appellatio ad Parlamentum,' de SS. Cœna Domini vera doctrina, et legitimo usu contra Neotericos, ad excellentiam Parliamenti curiam Anglicanam, illustre cum primis ac divinum monumentum e cæteris conscriptum, occupying from p. 209 to 392, together with other papers sent by Hooper to Bullinger, which, until lately discovered in this volume, were considered irretrievably lost. There is also in this edition matter which was omitted in the translations. From the Præfatio to lib. iii. it appears that the work owes its origin to the suggestion of the unfortunate Lady Jane Grey.
